Dear Sister,

Your letter of yesterday with enclosures arrived safely this morning as did the basket of flowers yesterday (Saturday) at noon, thanks therefor.

We had a heavy fall of snow at Cheetham hill in the small hours of this morning, at 5.30 A.M. it was lying 2 or 3 inches deep, on both Friday nights and last night the frost was very keen & I see by the papers that you had frost of some degrees on Thursday night. I do not think that Fittleworth is a pretty little village on the banks of the Rother in the neighbourhood of Petworth. The scenery in this neighbourhood is of a typical Sussex character, the river flowing through flat meadowlands of the most picturesque description. It possesses a delightfully pretty parish church (restored 1871) standing in a beautiful position.
